Game Principles and Objectives:

- Players try to be the first to win a card in each animal and plant family.
- Each card has clues that distinguish the particular species. To collect the cards, a player has successive clues that are increasingly precise, to prove their powers of deduction and...speed!

Game Benefits:

Players have fun while learning little known facts about 40 living beings including mammals, insects, birds, fruits and vegetables.

A game that is both fun and educational perfect for playtime and travel!
